2006 ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND PRODUCT EXPO

10TH ANNUAL TOWA CONFERENCE AND PRODUCT EXPOSITION

MONDAY AND TUESDAY FEBRUARY 13-14, 2006

Registration begins at 8:30 am, Monday, February 13, and the technical program will start at 10:00 am. Please pass the word to your friends and colleagues!

THIS CONFERENCE IS AN INFORMATIVE AND INEXPENSIVE WAY TO EARN PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT HOURS.

It is also conveniently scheduled the same week as the Pumper Show to attract exhibitors and those coming from out of town.

The conference speakers will have broad appeal to onsite wastewater professionals. They include:

- Dr. Jack Sheaffer, founder of the Sheaffer System, will speak on the alternative sewage treatment system that utilizes an aerated deep cell lagoon treatment.
- Doug Lassiter, Vice President of Southeast Sales for E-Z Set Company and Executive Director and Lobbyist for North Carolina Septic Tank Association, will speak about onsite system installation.
- Jeff Koch, National Federation of Small Business, will talk about saving costs on compensation and health insurance for small businesses.

EXHIBIT HALL WILL BE FEATURED MONDAY AND UNTIL LUNCH ON TUESDAY

- Charlie McEntyre, P.E, Tennessee Valley Authority, will discuss a research study on wastewater characteristics of marina and campground waste.
- Dr. John Buchanan, P.E, University of Tennessee, will discuss how trench design affects water movement into the soil and drip irrigation as a means of distributing wastewater.
- Sanmi Areola, Nashville Metro Health Department, will speak on diseases associated with sewage and how to prevent disease while working around untreated sewage.
- Robin Trundy, University of Tennessee, will provide a presentation on workers safety.
